

A watercolor painting of a dog's head and neck, rendered in warm tones of brown, orange, and yellow. The style is soft and textured, with visible brushstrokes and washes of color. The dog's face is the central focus, showing its eye, ear, and snout. The background is a light, neutral color, making the dog's form stand out. The overall mood is gentle and intimate.

Karinda Condray

Karinda